History: Built ca. 1900. Glenn County organized in 1891 when it was separated from Colusa County with Willows as the County seat. Dr. Hugh J. Glenn came to California from Missouri in 1849, worked in mines and purchased 7000 acres of Rancho Jacinto in 1867. By 1874 he held 55,000 acres which composed a large part of Glenn Co.

Description: Two-story building in classic design with portico entrance, pedimented entrance element and pedimented wings. First story in Doric Order and second story in Corinthian Order. Arched windows at first story. Second story has pediment hoods over arched windows. Cupola with dome and lantern rises over center of building. Balustraded parapet and statues mounted over entrance and wing pediments.
